

Word for 2024 – Felecia Bowen

I heard a voice talking to me. I could not see the person I was not in a deep sleep. As a matter fact, it was like I was in the twilight zone. I felt like the voice talked to me for a very long time and at some point, I got up and went to my desk and started to write down what I was hearing, which again is a challenge in the dark! I heard “for over a decade. “There have been seeds, planted, good seeds and evil seeds, and that because of different circumstances, and because of the field they were planted in not all of them, came up at their proper season, but I heard 2024 there’s going to be an explosion of the seeds.

It will appear that the evil seeds have been fertilized and are growing taller and stronger than the other seeds, but this is by design it will make them easier to identify and easier to yank up. The voice said there have been seeds that have been planted and watered with tears and year after year The one that planted came back to look to see if they could see any sign of life, but this will be the year that not only will that seed break through the ground but it’s going to produce multiple plants, plants that will be hanging over heavy with fruit. Then the voice said do not allow your eyes to lock in or focus on the chaos the wars, the destruction the evil that is going to rise up in 2024 instead, from your place on the wall you must lock your eyes with mine.

I need you to be in agreement with my plan with my will and that won’t happen if your vision has been diverted, stand your place on the wall, do not be distracted do not take on a spirit of fear, but watch diligently, for the enemy is not going to come from the air. He’s gonna come from the ground up be mindful of your wall and the foundation of your wall. cry out to me and I will deliver cry out to me, and I will provide cry out to me, and I will heal. Ask to see the size of the angel armies that I have dispersed on your behalf. it is a huge group it circles the globe, and it is not intimidated. In this year of intercession. Pray my word speak my word believe my word. Use my word! My word will heal. My word will deliver. My word will defend. it is time for those who call themselves generals in the army of god to speak up and speak out, you can no longer take a neutral side you can no longer be concerned with the political correctness of the day. Souls are dying. Men are failing, and your words are full of compromise. This will be the year that personal prayer and hearts, desires and victories will be established. Game time is over practice time is over it's time to go forth in the authority and confidence that God alone gives.

Again, do not be fearful at the things you're going to see and hear keep your eyes locked in on mine, stand your ground, and watch the salvation of the Lord.
