

Word for 2024 – Joanna Adams

2024: Not like before. The ceiling now becomes your floor.

I saw a vision. A person was lifted up, and their ceiling became their floor. Then immediately, God desired to pull the person up again, but there was a pull from underneath; a plot to bring them down.

And I heard the Lord say, “This year, you must reach towards heaven and keep your eyes fixed on Me. The devil would desire to ruin, pull down, and destroy all accomplishments and growth from this past season. But as you fix your eyes on Me, and reach further into Me, I'll bring you up at an accelerated speed.”

I heard the Lord say, "I'm raising up Fearless Fighters".

I saw an army of people on their knees and the battle was being won in prayer. As the devil came in and attacked, these fearless fighters humbled themselves, lowering themselves even lower and lower, and they continued to pray. It was in that posture of humility and constant prayer that the battles were being won.

Prayer is going to be a must in 2024, in order to see your ceiling become your floor!
