

PROPHETIC WORDS FOR 2013

DR. RUSS MOYER

This is the year that the prodigals are coming home!

It is a year that will see the world again in a chaotic state but the true Church will begin to draw closer together and He will separate the sheep and the goats into end time alignment. You will begin to clearly see this in both the Natural and in the Spirit. A worldwide shift and change in leadership and a new breed of leader is rising up in different realms of influence in our society and taking their place on the worldwide stage. The world will begin to experience more & more moments of anarchy, chaos & confusion but this will be a year of divine order & spiritual alignment for the true church. They will begin to fill the void and people in North America are going to begin to draw a line in the sand and once again take a stance for morality & integrity. They are going to make their voices heard and they are going to demand action and change!

In South America and in the Spanish speaking nations four major changes in leadership. The Spanish speaking community in the United States begins to flex its muscle and extend its influence in every fibre of US culture An increase in immigration of Spanish speaking people in Canada and the US. Particularly in the building trades and a settling of the current immigration issues that will display both compassion and reason.

I had a dream where I saw aboriginal leaders around a table meeting with government officials and they were passing around papers and envelopes and all standing up. I feel like this will be a year where many unresolved issues concerning land, treaties and financial disputes will be put to rest, it is a season for First Nations people to press in for closure. The healing is in progress, its time for closure to begin. Hidden treasures are going to be revealed in the Natural and in the Spirit and also things that have been hidden in the hearts of men and nations will be revealed for all to see. The greatest treasures uncovered shall not be the precious metals and hidden gems although that will begin to happen more and more particularly in the North but it will be in the uncovering and revealing of creative, spiritual, natural and business strengths of the people as they step higher and higher and deeper and deeper into self rule taking their rightful place on the world stage. Great interest in both the Arctic and the Antarctic for exploration and resource development and this interest will bring with it the accompanying wealth generation and opportunity. It will also call for true and new leadership, and educational training that will position them to take advantage of these new opportunities.

In Canada migration shall continue to increase both to west and to the north. Another bright year for Canada in finance and the spread of trade and commerce to the emerging nations of China, India, South America & the Middle East. The relationship with Israel will bear fruit and produce financial gain and some opposition and persecution even from within. Canada is becoming the new working model of democracy.

I saw a pot boiling on the stove, it starts to overheat & I take the lid off and lower the heat then come back in a little while & put the lid back thinking its ok now but suddenly and quickly it starts to boil again and I know it doesn't take much.

I was in a low flying spy plane, a weird shape thing like an animal or a drone. I was flying over the Mediterranean then over some of the hotspots around the world and realize that we think we fixed them but all we did was relieve the pressure and they are going to boil up & flare up again because little was done in the long term - everything was more of a quick fix and its not going to take much for it boil over again.

Like Greece / Italy / Portugal and Spain

South American more violence & a change in leadership in three nations.

In the Middle East more change and more trouble exposing hearts and motives hidden things, continual flare ups & unstable atmosphere. The US sending mixed & confusing messages adding to the problem and avoiding and side-stepping the true issues. Russia showing her true colors & a closer alignment with Iran & China.

In the Far East, China, India, Japan and Korea governments start to feel the pressure of their new found influence and weaknesses in their infrastructure begins to surface. Changes in leadership and a balance of power in each of these nations!

EWWM - 2013 - Supernatural exponential growth & development! The new generation of leadership steps into place, spreads their wings and begins to soar. Babies having babies! The reaper overtakes the sower! Two new church births & this new growth comes from within & without! The birth pains are forgotten as the new begins to come forth! Ever expanding in Canada, US, North America and the Nations of the World! Solidifying our influence in the West and the North - new office and resource centre opens on the western front and in the Arctic. Finally, some doors open to the Maritimes, Mexico and the Orient!

The model takes shape in a way that causes others to take notice! The blueprints are approved & stamped construction begins on the new phase of development! The call goes out to the builders the hunters and the fishers of men! Breakthroughs on all sides and every front! New practical training centres opening in the North and the West! The apostolic connects networks to networks based on relationship Heart to Heart, Spirit to Spirit with a Kingdom view and Kingdom vision! Bring your own boots - new marching orders are being distributed. Arise and Shine Your Hour Has Come, Saith The Lord.

PASTOR MAVE MOYER

Time to arise
And let MY glory be seen
It's the year of my manifest Presence 2013

My glory will overtake you
And be with you as you go
The fullness of my presence
You shall truly come to know....

And my people will realize
They don't have to "work it up" for me
Just move in my spirit
And BE.....

My dreamers will arise
And stand before kings
They will speak to those in authority
And reveal the hidden things.....

For Many will dream dreams
Without the understanding today
My people will arise
And show them the way.....

It's a year of restoration
Reconciliation and grace
Those who have been holding offence
Will become willing to let go and erase

This year they'll make the sacrifice
Of forgiving no matter the cost
They'll move in resolution
And recover what's been lost

There'll be Seven years of plenty
As the Joseph anointing settles in
While the world suffers lack and loss
My children will rise and win

Others will look upon you
As you set the table with a feast
And my blessing shall be upon you
From the greatest to the least....

A great season of provision
For those walking in my way
Those willing and obedient
Will eat the good of the land today....

Anxiety will be upon the people
As they trust in their own will Fear and phobias will operate
And lossthey'll have their fill

Anarchy and disobedience
Will run rampant in the world
Chaos and destruction
As judgment is unfurled....

My shaking will continue
As Depression and financial loss has its way
The world will spiral downward
As my people arise and have their say

For It's a year of walking in authority
Taking your rightful place
Speaking to plaques and virus
And Moving in Gods grace....

Keeping your eyes on the signs
As things happen in the land
Remember you have authority
And in faith you must take a stand.....

This year the body will come together
Each operating in their gift and way
All will be important....
All will have their say

For each member is significant
A Living stone in the house of The Lord
When we move in unity
We will never be ignored.....

God will continue His shaking in the body
And many hidden things shall be revealed
Many hearts will be mended
And many will be healed....

It's a year of supernatural suddenlies
And revival rivers...with fires that shine
There will be a refreshing....
And my people will be refined....

Mark 7:21-22
will be the scripture of the hour
As many practice these evils
The enemy will devour

Unspeakable crimes in neighbourhoods
As sins are tolerated and received
Many will believe the lie
Many will be deceived

It is the time my children
To truly rise and shine
The year of 2013
My church will get in line.....
